

Code of Conduct

This EACR congress will bring together participants from across the world to share their research and learn from each other. We are committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment with an atmosphere of mutual tolerance and respect.

All attendees, including speakers, sponsors, vendors, partners and staff are expected to adhere to the following code of conduct at the Congress.

If the EACR believes that any participant's behaviour is detrimental to the safety, security or wellbeing of others, we may ask them to change their behaviour or in extreme circumstances we may require them to leave the Congress venue.

- Be considerate, respectful, collaborative and inclusive
- Participate in an authentic and active manner
- Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, prejudicial, or harassing behaviour and speech
- Do not use inappropriate language and images
- Do not engage in harm or threats of any kind
- Do not inappropriately disrupt presentations, talks and the congress in general
- Do not make audio or visual recordings of slides, Q&A, oral or poster presentations/forums/chats without the presenter/author's permission

Attendees can report inappropriate behaviour to the congress organisers at eacr@newway-management.com